

People and Policies: The 7.30 Debates

From the authors of “Bringing the Billions Back”

Policy Forum
in collaboration with Forum Syd

warmly welcomes you to the monthly breakfast debate on

Curbing Capital Flight from Africa

The resources disappearing from developing countries due to capital flight are 10 times higher than foreign aid and constitute an immense amount of loss in state income. If capital flight would stop, the Tanzanian state finances would be enough to meet the Millennium Development Goals in the country. This breakfast debate will discuss its impact on development and what role civil society organizations can play in curbing capital flight.

Friday 25th November, 2011

07:30am to 09:30am

at the

British Council Dar es Salaam

Program

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 07:30 - 07:40 | Registration and informal networking |
| 07:40 - 08:00 | Presentation 1: The magnitude of capital flight from developing countries, contributing factors and consequences, by Kristina Froberg , Advocacy Officer, Forum Syd |
| 08:00 - 8:15 | Presentation 2: Capital flight from Kenya (Case Study), by Dr. Attiya Waris , Tax Justice Network |
| 08:15 – 08:25 | Discussant: Moses Kulaba , Executive Director of AP 2000 and Convener of the Policy Forum Budget Working Group |
| 08:25 - 09:30 | Group and Plenary discussion What role can CSOs play in curbing capital flight? |
| 09.30 | Announcements and Close |

*Speakers sponsored by the Swedish Institute.